

Plenary session Wednesday 23th June at 14:00 – 17:00

Information Management for Knowledge Creation I Research Dissemination in a Global Context. Copyright Issues in Publishing.

This plenary session aims are that the participants will

- gain deeper understanding of author rights
- gain deeper understanding of using others' work in researching and publishing
- learn about Open Access-publishing and self-archiving.
- learn about ranking methods by means of bibliometric data.

Key words:

- Copyrights
- Using others' intellectual work
- Plagiarism
- Citation metrics
- Open Access
- Self archiving

Workshop Thursday 24th June at 9:00 – 12:00

Information Management for Knowledge Creation II Tracing Research Information

In this workshop the participants will have access to a personal computer in order to perform exercises and information searches that are relevant to your work.

The workshop aims are that the participants will

- gain a deeper understanding of information search and information retrieval
- be able to build a search strategy and recognize and take advantage of the differences between the various kinds of databases available through libraries
- find information and download articles relevant to your work
- learn about the peer review process
- manage personal information, e.g. save searches, keep track of references and create RSS feeds and other alerts
- utilize the ISI WoS ranking methods

Key words:

- Databases
- Search strategy
- Peer review process
- Impact factor, Citation Report

NB! When register at the BSRS Monday 21st June, you will be asked to sign up for the workshop. The workshop is strongly recommended by the BSRS-community.